

Radio spot 1: J&J vaccine - available and given in one dose

The COVID-19 vaccine can protect you and your loved ones from serious illness caused by the coronavirus. Any person aged 18 years and above is eligible to be vaccinated. COVID-19 vaccinations are administered in hundreds of health facilities and in local communities throughout South Sudan. The COVID-19 vaccine in South Sudan, made by the US company Johnson & Johnson, is known as the 'J&J' vaccine. It is currently available in Ministry of Health facilities - hospitals, PHCCs, PHCUs – throughout the country. The J&J vaccine is a single dose injection, and provides protection against the moderate and serious effects of COVID-19 disease. For the health and well-being of you and your family, get vaccinated today. For more information, call the toll-free hotline number 6666.

This message is brought to you by the Ministry of Health of the Government of South Sudan and made possible by the generous support of the American people.

Radio spot 2: J&J vaccine - safe and effective

The COVID-19 vaccine can protect you and your loved ones from serious illness due to the coronavirus. The Johnson and Johnson vaccine, referred to as the J&J vaccine, is being offered to anyone 18 years and above at hundreds of vaccination centers in all the 80 Counties of South Sudan. The vaccine is safe and effective and will protect against moderate and serious COVID-19 disease. For the health and well-being of you and your family, get vaccinated today. For more information, call the toll-free hotline number 6666.

This message is brought to you by the Ministry of Health of the Government of South Sudan and made possible by the generous support of the American people.

Radio spot 3: Safe for women and men planning to have children

The COVID-19 vaccine is safe, effective and available for everyone who is 18 years and above. This includes women and men who are planning on having children and women who are pregnant or breastfeeding. The vaccine does not impact fertility or pregnancies and is safe for breastfeeding mothers and their babies. For the health and well-being of you and your family, get vaccinated today. For more information, call the toll-free hotline number 6666.

This message is brought to you by the Ministry of Health of the Government of South Sudan and made possible by the generous support of the American people.